

ABSTRACT

Isolated dark features, e.g. contact holes or lines, are exposed in a double exposure, using different illumination settings in the two exposures.